

Surrey Youth League Respect Marshal Match Day Responsibilities

Pre Match

- Around 30 Mins before the match both Respect Marshals from the Home and Away Team Should meet with the referee.
- Purpose of Brief is to exchange Names – Ref and Respect Marshal, and to ascertain if the referee is Under 18.
- Make sure that the Referee & Respect Marshals are clear on the Match Day Respect Processes to be used during the game, in that if the referee believes level of respect are being breached he calls the Respect Marshals onto the Pitch.
- Please remind your spectators that they do not at any point stand behind the opposition Linesman

During Match

- If the Referee is shown dissent by Spectators and or managers he will stop the game.
- On stopping the game he will move towards the centre of the pitch and invite the Respect Marshals onto the Pitch
- He will inform the Respect Marshals of the individual or group of people that are behaving in a disrespectful way.
- No names are to be given or taken at this stage

Informing Spectators or managers of Respect Breach

- Respect Marshal heads over to their own supporters / manager who the referee is reporting.
- Just politely informs the spectators that they are to calm down, show some respect, they will be reported by the referee.
- The spectators can then take the advise, if the referee has cause to talk to the Respect Marshals again in the match regarding the same spectators then the referee will report this as Misconduct to the FA and probably choose to abandon the game

Post Match Debrief

- After every match both Respect Marshals to have a quick chat with the ref.
- In 99% of all matches it will be a quick “everything was fine, no issues, thank you” conversation
- When a Respect Marshal has been informed of a breach then at this stage exchange names of any offenders that have been identified to the referee, so that he can inform the league,

Post Match Reporting

- The league would like the Respect Marshals to report all matches on our prawn sandwich system, even for matches where no respect breaches have occurred
- Please go to the prawn sandwich system www.prawnsandwich.com, and select the match report icon.
- Please fill in the Respect Marshal Report – There is a YouTube demo available on the league website – www.wsyl.org.uk
